

Activity 4: Trust or Don't Trust

Look at the examples below and decide whether you think they are false news. On Activity Sheet 4a below are some 'Trust and Don't Trust' voting cards that can be used to join in with this activity during the Live Lesson.

1.

The screenshot shows a BBC News article on the 'finance' section. The headline is 'Money Saving Expert Martin Lewis Invests £500,000 In To Wealth-Creation System (Quit your job in 30 days!)'. Below the headline is a sub-headline: 'British Are Using This to Make £450/day On Average And Quitting Their Jobs!'. The article features a photograph of Martin Lewis, a man in a suit, with his hand raised to his face in a 'shushing' gesture.

2.

The screenshot shows a tweet from Ed Sheeran (@edsheersan). The text of the tweet is: 'I love @ladygaga. Spoke to her earlier and she mistook me for a waiter. Gotta love the #GRAMMYS. #INeedANewSuit? Aha.'

Trust

---

Don't trust