

Activity 1: Comprehension and summary

You are commentating on Mo Farah's final appearance at a major athletics championship. Working in pairs, read the BBC Sports paragraph below and draw a line connecting some of the key facts you may need for your commentary. The first fact (Who?) has been completed as an example.

Who – who is running the race?

When – when is the race taking place?

What – what is the event?

Why – why is this race important?

Where – where is the race being held?

BBC SPORT

Venue: London Stadium

Mo Farah says he will take "nothing for granted" following Usain Bolt's failure to win the world 100m gold medal as the pair prepare for their final major championship appearances on Saturday 12th August in the World Athletics Championships.

"It would be pretty amazing," he said of his bid to win a fourth world 5,000m gold following victories in 2011, 2013 and 2015. The race starts at 20:20 on Saturday.

He added: "No-one has ever done it. It would mean the world to me but at the same time I don't take it for granted."

Your teacher can send in your ideas to live.lessons@bbc.co.uk or use the hashtag #bbclivelessons for a chance to be featured on our Live Lesson.