

Resource Sheet 4: Doll's house

Read this extract from the story. Underline the foods.

The doll's house belonged to two dolls named Lucinda and Jane. Jane was the cook, though she never did any cooking because the meals were always ready to eat on the table. There was a whole chicken and a ham and a fish and some pears and oranges in a bowl. The food wasn't real but it looked real. It looked delicious.

What foods would you put in a doll's house? Write a list below.
