

Over the oceans

Words and music: Barry Gibson

Rollicking along

D Em D/F# G D/A Bm A⁷

5 Chorus

D Em D G D Em D A⁷

O - ver the o - ceans and o - ver the seas, Sail north or south, Or go west, or go east,

9 D Em D G D/A A⁷ D (Verses to same tune)

Time and tide tra - vel - ling, Blown by the breeze... O - ver the cen - tu - ries!

*Over the oceans
And over the seas
Sail north or south
Or go west, or go east
Time and tide travelling
Blown by the breeze...
Over the centuries!*

1 Christopher Columbus set off with his crew
Way back in 1492
What a surprise - a New World came in view!...
Over the centuries

Chorus

2 Maps, for Magellan, they helped him explore
Sailing-ships voyaging, shore to shore
Circling the world and then sailing some more...
Over the centuries

Chorus

3 England and Scotland and Ireland and Wales
(Hundreds of islands with seafaring tales)
Travel through history, wind in our sails...
Over the centuries

Chorus (twice, speeding up)
