

Alphabetical order

Many things are in alphabetical order. The words starting with a come first, then the words starting with b and so on. This can make it easier to find things. Here are some examples.

Books, DVDs, CDs and games in shops and libraries

Address books, directories and contact lists on phones

Dictionary

Index