

Writing your own advert: holiday articles

Sun Seekers

Sun Seekers is an apartment block offering low cost accommodation in the lively resort of San Antonio, Ibiza. Its central location means that guests are ideally placed for the town's vibrant nightlife. The apartments are within easy walking distance of numerous clubs, bars and restaurants, many of which offer all-night entertainment. Further details about summer beach parties and visiting DJs can be found on the Sun Seekers website.

Bridgehaven

Bridgehaven Holiday Park is situated in between the popular seaside town of Bournemouth and the beautiful New Forest. Whatever the weather, there is plenty of easily accessible entertainment to suit all ages. Several beaches with safe swimming areas are a short distance away and lifeguards are on duty throughout the summer months. A wide range of activities is offered on site, including the popular sports club aimed at children between the ages of 5 and 14, and the regular karaoke and talent competitions. Babysitting services can be organised with prior notice. Further information about other 'on site' activities and local amenities is included in our brochure.

Sea View Hotel

Sea View is a large hotel offering special rates for coach parties of guests wishing to holiday in the Lancashire resort of Blackpool. The hotel offers a range of comfortable accommodation on a full-board basis only. There is lift access to every floor. Although situated in a quiet location just outside the town, hotel guests can visit Blackpool's excellent shopping centre during the day using the free shuttle-bus service. Evening entertainment is offered nightly. Bingo nights and music from the resident 'in house' band are particularly popular with hotel guests. Organised trips to the surrounding countryside and sites of local interest can be arranged on request.

Read these articles and then summarise each destination using your own words and writing no more than a sentence about each.