

Writing your own advert

Read the three short articles on the information sheet 'Writing your own advert: holiday articles', each of which describes a different holiday destination.

After reading the articles, summarise each destination using your own words and writing no more than a sentence about each. For example:

'Rose Cottage' would be an ideal destination for a couple in love who are dreaming of escaping for a quiet, romantic weekend in the countryside.

When reading the articles:

- Remember that you sometimes need to 'read between the lines' to understand what's really meant.
- Consider the type of person who'd enjoy each holiday venue and the reasons why.
