

Planning writing with sticky notes

Is there somewhere you'd like to visit with friends or family? Use the internet or your local library to research your preferred trip so that you can write a short report for your friends or family. Use the sticky notes to jot down all the points you want to cover in your report.

Now arrange the sticky notes in the order you want for your report:

Now you're ready to do the first draft of your report.
