

Writing an instructive text

You write instructive text when you want to instruct your reader or tell them how to do something.

Read through the factsheet Writing instructive text and then have a go at writing your own instructive text.

Write your own set of instructions about a task you regularly carry out. You can use the following grid and questions to help you plan your writing.

What are you instructing someone to do?

Who are you giving the instructions to?

Will the reader need anything? (For example, tools, ingredients etc.)

-
-
-
-

Have you listed the instructions in the correct order?

1. First
2. Then

Writing an instructive text

3. Next

4. Finally