

Writing about a holiday

When you plan your writing, it's best to write down ideas before you start writing sentences.

Here are some ideas for writing about a holiday. Would it make sense to change the order?

Write them down in the best order so that each idea follows on from the one before.

1. The place you stayed at and places you visited.
2. The trip from home to holiday place, arriving.
3. Packing for the holiday.
4. The trip home, people you met.
5. Planning and booking the holiday.
6. The last night on holiday.
7. Best and worst days.
