Sally is looking for a flat and has emailed her mother to tell her about one she's seen. Highlight all the adjectives in the email.

Hi Mum,

Just been out looking again and I've found a fantastic flat. The bedroom is quite small but the living room is lovely. There are huge windows with an amazing view over a beautiful park. It even has a little balcony - I hate being stuck indoors when the weather's nice. Unfortunately the kitchen is tiny but I'm a terrible cook anyway.

Can you come with me to look at it again?

Love

Sally
