

Positioning adverbs

Choose the most natural position for the adverbs in the sentences below. The adverb is written in bold at the end of the sentence.

For example: The woman walked into the class. nervously

= Nervously the woman walked into the class.

Or:

= The woman walked into the class nervously.

1. Her tooth started hurting again. suddenly
2. Bake the cake for two hours at 150°C. slowly
3. I take the bus to work, apart from on Fridays. always
4. We have barbecues in the summer. rarely
5. I get headaches. often
6. The dog barked when the door was opened. loudly
7. The car was damaged. badly
8. The couple argued over the cost of the bill. angrily
9. She had met her long lost brother. finally
10. The police officer explained the route to the train station. clearly