

Using adverbs to compare

Look at the sentences below. Can you use a comparison adverb in the second sentence?

Here are two examples:

Tracey dives gracefully. Sharon dives more gracefully.

Jamil works hard in the gym. Sereya works the hardest in the gym.

1. Steve often works late at the office, but John regularly works _____ .
2. The mouse ran quickly into the room, but the cat caught up as it ran _____ .
3. Sarah thought she had arrived early at the party, but Paul had arrived _____ .
4. Simon ran slowly around the course, but Mary ran the _____ of all.
5. I go to the cinema regularly during the summer but _____ during the winter.
6. The car park was busy so Tim parked far away from the shops, but Susan had to park _____ away.
7. My friend Sheila performed well in her driving test with only six faults; but her sister performed _____ with only four faults.
8. I have recently given up eating junk food, but _____ given up smoking.
9. Manchester United played badly on Saturday, losing 2-0; but out of the entire Premiership, Chelsea played the _____ on Saturday, losing 5-0.
10. Andy worked the _____ out of all his college friends as he always came top in exams.