

Identifying and explaining adverbs

Look at these sentences. Can you identify and explain what the adverb is telling you about the verb in the sentence? The first one has been done for you.

She sang loudly to the people in the room.
The adverb loudly is telling you how she sang.

1. The weather has been terrible all day; it has been raining constantly.

The adverb _____ is telling you _____.

2. Please shut the door quietly behind you.

The adverb _____ is telling you _____.

3. The parcel arrived yesterday.

The adverb _____ is telling you _____.

4. I looked everywhere for my car keys.

The adverb _____ is telling you _____.

5. Earlier I visited my mother in hospital.

The adverb _____ is telling you _____.