

Directions by text

You are going swimming with your friend. Write them a text to give them instructions for how to find the swimming pool from the bus stop.

Your instructions will probably start with a verb (a 'doing' word). You may also want to use words that show the order of the instructions, like 'next' and 'then'. Use your own phone or the template on page 2.

Write a text message to give your friend instructions for how to get from the bus stop to the swimming pool. Use the map on page 1 to help you.

