

Match the film

Listen carefully to the booking information in the audio clip Match the film.

Look at the descriptions and decide which film everyone should see.

Tip: read the questions through before you listen to the audio clip. That way you'll know what you're listening for. Remember, if you are not sure you can listen to the information again.

	Enrico is celebrating his 18th birthday today. He wants to see a film that he wasn't supposed to see before. Enrico should watch _____
	Aleksy and Anna want to go to the cinema after work on Friday, before they go to the pub to meet some friends. Aleksy is a big fan of Ben Kingsley. Aleksy and Anna should watch _____
	Mike and his 12-year-old son Adam want a Saturday treat. Adam likes adventure films, cartoons and fantasy. Mike needs to get him back to his Mum's for 2pm. Mike and Adam should watch _____
	Mary wants to see a film that will finish in enough time for her to catch the 6.30pm bus home. She likes musicals and romances. Mary should watch _____
	Abdul is at university studying film. He wants to see a George Lucas film that's less than 150 minutes long. Abdul should watch _____
	Elaine wants to see a Ted Tally screenplay about a girl called Clarice. Elaine should watch _____