

Writing a book review - answers

Using no more than three sentences, write a summary of “The Silent Villagers” so that a potential reader can make a quick decision about whether they’d want to read it. Make sure you capture the style and essence of the book.

Having read the review you’ll have come to your own conclusions about the book. This is a suggested summary only. Yours will be different.

Error! Reference source not found.