

A good idea - answers

A possible answer might be (the added words are in bold):

I was just settling down in front of the computer when Tom suggested a picnic in the park.

“Good idea!” I thought.

I looked in the fridge and found some cheese and some tomatoes. There was also a bottle of lemonade. Good start, but there was no bread!

“We can get some rolls from the shop on the way to the park,” said Tom.

We were out of the house in five minutes - much better than working.