

Noticing adjectives - answers

EastEnders crowned Best Soap at British Soap Awards

After a fantastic year, "EastEnders" came up trumps to win Best Soap at the annual British Soap Awards 2011 in Manchester on Saturday night.

As well as winning the ultimate glory a second year on the trot at the prestigious soap oscars, your favourite soap has clinched another trio of shiny gongs!

The wonderful Jessie Wallace beat off tough competition to be crowned with Best Actress for playing Kat Moon. The Vic landlady has had a gripping year, as she's struggled to deal with Tommy's tragic loss..., she picked up Best On-Screen Partnership with Shane Richie for their portrayal as loveable Kat and Alfie Moon.

Let's hope that the northern city has now recovered from the waft of hairspray and glow of gorgeous tans, after hosting the awards for the first time in 12 years.

Thank you for all of your votes in these top-notch awards!

Which adjectives are positive? Fantastic, best, ultimate, prestigious, favourite, shiny, wonderful, gripping, loveable, gorgeous, top-notch

Which adjectives are negative? Tough, tragic

Which adjectives are factual (neither positive nor negative)? Annual, British, second, on-screen, northern, first

Which list is the longest? Why do you think this is? The longest list is of positive adjectives. Because "EastEnders" won an award and the article is portraying the programme in a positive light.