

Using 'I' and 'me' - answers

The text below is Jenny's job history, with the 20 personal pronouns and the verb changes in bold underlined.

I am forty years old. I have four children and I am responsible for running the family home. I was a registered childminder. I found this job gave me the flexibility that I needed with a young family. I wanted to give up childminding as I wanted a new challenge, to meet different people and gain more skills.

First I studied for and gained Literacy and Numeracy qualifications. This made me more confident and I began to apply for other jobs. The first job I applied for was as a dinner lady. A teacher told me about it. This meant that I was able to study and earn at the same time.

I have had several different jobs since then, including being a housekeeper at a local youth hostel. This included being responsible for taking bookings and receiving payment from guests. The manager was very pleased with me and has offered to give me a reference.

I would like to continue with this kind of work as I enjoy the fact that each day is different.

Now consider writing your own job history.