

Building sentences - answers

There are so many different sentences that could be made with these words that it's not possible to give 'right answers'. Here are some suggestions for the kinds of sentences you could have made:

My neighbour is on holiday.

Yesterday the cat jumped out of the window on the first floor.

I am writing to complain about the service I got in your shop.

Pauline is angry.

They watched the TV while the dinner was cooking.

Today I am feeling much better.

After taking her temperature, the doctor said "you have the flu."

On Sunday Sharon cooked lunch.

He had to walk to the station because his car had a flat tyre.

Dot read the newspaper slowly because it was her day off.

Some of these sentences are very short and simple. Some of them are longer.

What range of sentences have you made? Compare your work with a friend's work.