

Construction words in use - answers

1. Procurement means the process by which a client gets a structure built - it involves contractors tendering for work.
2. Take care when handling hazardous substances. Always wear gloves and follow the instructions on the packaging.
3. All contractors are responsible for making sure that the working environment is kept tidy and clear of hazards.
4. Acids and other corrosive substances must be stored in a secure area when not being used.