

I've always said music should make you laugh, make you cry or make you think. (Kenny Rogers)

You get hit in the head with a message, and you get hit in the feet with a rhythm. You're beaten up with music. (John Waite)

If you hear a good song, you don't dissect it - you just listen, and every bit seems right. (Angus Young)

When you've written a good song is when you know that the lyric is completely coalesced with the song.
(Andrew Lloyd Webber)

It's very helpful to start with something that's true. If you start with something that's false, you're always covering your tracks.
(Paul Simon)
