

Jaz and her mates walked to the park
Where they ate ice-cream.
They went on the swings,
Then took a ball
And got into a kickabout

Now let's swap the verbs.

Jaz and her mates raced to the park
Where they devoured ice-creams.
They soared on the swings,
Then grabbed a ball
And launched into a kickabout

Vivid Verbs, lively stories
Vivid Verbs, "doing words" say more
Vivid Verbs paint a picture
Vivid vivid verbs!

But Jaz looked at the dark clouds coming
And said: "It's starting to rain".
Jaz and her mates went under a tree
Where they found an old umbrella

How about some vivid verbs?

But Jaz wincing at the dark clouds looming,
And gasped: "It's starting to rain".
Jaz and her mates scurried under a tree
And discovered an old umbrella

Vivid Verbs, lively stories
Vivid Verbs, "doing words" say more
Vivid Verbs paint a picture
Vivid vivid verbs!

They marvelled at the old umbrella
It pulsed and quivered until...

They nudged it and wow it whooshed open
And zapped them to a beach in Brazil.

Vivid Verbs, lively stories
Vivid Verbs, “doing words” say more
Vivid Verbs paint a picture
Vivid vivid verbs!