

Activity 1: Match the quote to the genre!

1. 'The blue whale (Latin name: Balaenoptera musculus) can grow up to 30 metres long. It feeds on krill, tiny shrimp-like sea creatures.'

2. 'Uma stared into the valley below...It was a long way down! The rope bridge swayed beneath her feet. She took a deep breath, adjusted her backpack and inched her way forwards.'

3. 'Around him, his army stood silent and wondering. Alexander tightened his grip on his sword. "Get some rest. Tomorrow we march on Thrace!" he told them.'

4. 'Neo stepped through the time portal. Above them twin suns blazed in the midday sky. The portal snapped shut, trapping Neo on this forbidden planet.'

historical fiction

science fiction

nature (non-fiction)

adventure

Activity 2: Redesign your favourite book character below.

Draw your character here...

Describe your character...

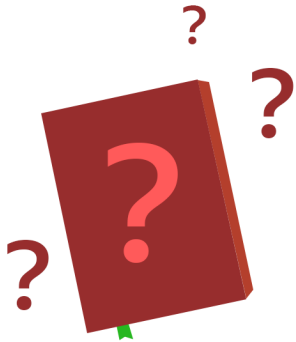

Helpful words...

hero kind strong magical funny helpful
good thoughtful silly unusual brave strange inspirational loud quiet colourful clever

Activity 3: What's your twist, how does your story end?

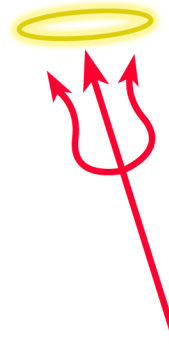

Write or draw a twist for your tale below. We've added some suggestions to get you started...

*What if your story
was set in the future
instead of the past?*

*Could you turn
fact into fiction?*

*Could you rewrite
your human character into an animal?*

*What if your hero
was actually
the villain?*