

Understanding right angles

Angles are measured in degrees.

A full turn is 360°. A half turn is 180°. A quarter turn is 90°.

A right angle is usually represented as below:

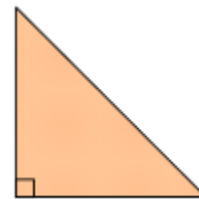

Some mathematical shapes have right angles, as shown here:

squares

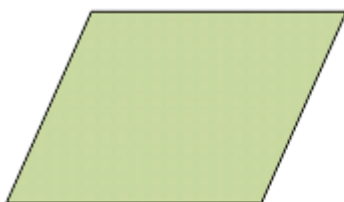

rectangles

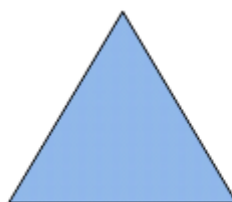

right-angled triangles

These mathematical shapes do not have right angles:

parallelograms

other triangles

regular hexagons