

Ordering chances - answers

It is not clear how to put the following:

The chance that the earth has been visited by intelligent alien life forms.

Where did you put it?

The remainder would be best described as...

Certain:

The chance that sun will rise in the morning.

Likely:

The chance that house prices will rise over the next five years.

The chance of tossing a coin and getting tails.

Unlikely:

The chance that it will snow in the UK in July.

The chance of throwing a six with an ordinary dice.
