

5 FAB STORY HACKS!

Five fun ways every CREATIVE GENIUS
can tell a story!

1.

SIX-MINUTE STORY CHALLENGE

Set a timer for six minutes* and tell a story in that time. Write it, draw it, record it with a microphone – IT'S UP TO YOU!

DON'T WORRY ABOUT MISTAKES – just get from the beginning of your story to the end.

You can go back later and make your story perfect, if you want to!

* or however long you want!

2.

LET THE DICE DECIDE!

Everybody gets writer's block sometimes. Here's a way to beat it...

Make a list of random HEROES numbered from 1-6, and another of PROBLEMS!

FIVE = Banana

ONE = Too Many Farts

Now roll a dice twice to get your story starter!

PARP!

Once there was a Banana who couldn't stop farting...

3.

FAIRYTALE REMIX!

Take a story you know well and change something really important about it!

Imagine if the three bears were ALIENS, or a vlogger pricked their finger and fell asleep for 100 years ...

4.

ODDLES OF DOODLES!

Instead of writing, try DRAWING!

Create a map where your story will happen!

Make a scribble on a page. Now give it eyes and a mouth, arms and legs.

What kind of adventures does this character get into?

REMEMBER:

IT'S YOUR STORY - TELL IT HOWEVER YOU WANT!

5.

A HERO IS DRAWN!

Figure out who your story's hero is by drawing them first!

Try out different HEAD SHAPES, EXPRESSIONS and HAIRSTYLES to see how that changes your hero's personality.

What kind of hero best suits the story you want to tell?
