

The Things We Say

Creative Moments

CREATE a list of encouraging short phrases that inspire creativity and build confidence. Draw the words in ways that visually communicate by using lines, shapes, colors, and symbols that convey the message.

PRESENT a favorite phrase with a cool rhythm. Teach others to chant it together, enthusiastically and joyfully, three times. Practice saying the same words using different tones, for example comedic, mysterious, secretive, and exuberant.

RESPOND by discussing how it feels to hear positive messages.

DISPLAY THESE PHRASES

Post positive notes in places where classmates will see them.

CONNECT the phrases with storytelling and creative writing. Use the phrases in an original story and submit it to 500 Words. When can you say these encouraging phrases and weave them into everyday conversations?
